Love 2.0 - Now available for streaming!

After avoiding the topic of love for many years, Adamus says it's finally time to bring it forward, because "You finally have the maturity to allow this sacred energy." In Love 2.0 he makes the remarkable statement that love itself is the answer to our original questions of "Who am I?" and "How do consciousness and energy work together?" In fact, he says that love is what will ultimately bring consciousness and energy together. But for now, "What comes next in your life here on the planet is being in that energy, that consciousness of love at all times, letting everything reflect back to you love itself." This new Love 2.0 expands and updates what Adamus calls classic love, enriching and changing your current relationships, stimulating your creativity, and opening deep joy and soulfulness within you. Whether or not you experience love with another person, it is ultimately about allowing the love of Self. After all, Adamus challenges: "What have you got to lose by loving yourself? For indeed, how could the Master not love itself."

Highlights:

- Love is vital to the planet's evolution
- Love changes how light becomes reality
- It can expand gravity and alter time & space
- Self-love is the Christ Seed planted with Yeshua
- Now is the time for this precious harvest
- What is love? Awareness and acceptance

Six sessions including a future Q&A, available now in the Crimson Circle store

Master Code Online - March 16 - 17

There is a destiny that has brought you forward lifetime after lifetime. It was The Way, the path forward that was coded in Atlantis and based on a foundation of guilt and remorse. The mind, locked into its own coding for eons, will finally rejoice as the light of your own soul releases the old, tightly fused energies of the Atlantean Code. Now it is time for a new Code, The Way of the Master, accompanied by your greatest gift to humanity, the Ascension Code. This is why you're here. Live hosted with Geoff & Linda Hoppe.
